

Privacy Policy of www.robtorossidesign.it

This Application collects some Personal Data from its Users.

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR No. 679/2016)

This page is intended to inform users of this site about its management procedures with regard to the processing of their personal data, as required by Articles 13 and 14 of European Regulation No. 679/2016 – General Data Protection Regulation.

This policy also fully complies with Recommendation No. 2/2001, which the European data protection authorities, gathered in the Working Party established by Article 29 of Directive No. 95/46/EC, adopted on May 17, 2001, to identify minimum requirements for the collection of personal data online and, in particular, the methods, timing, and nature of the information that data controllers must provide to users when they connect to web pages, regardless of the purpose of the connection.

By visiting this site, data relating to identified or identifiable individuals may be processed.

Please note that consent mechanisms will be clear, brief, and easily understandable. If the original conditions for which consent was requested change, for example, if the purpose of data processing changes, further consent will be required pursuant to European Regulation No. 679/2016.

We also specify that all consent forms collected will be documented separately from any other company documents.

StatCounter

StatCounter is a web analytics service.

- Sign up for the StatCounter service and we'll give you a tiny piece of HTML and JavaScript code to insert into your webpage.

- When a visitor visits your webpage with the installed HTML and JavaScript code, their anonymous details are sent to StatCounter to be recorded. Their details are gathered either from the counter the visitor loads from StatCounter, or an invisible image depending on your settings. This action takes place instantly and the user is completely oblivious and unaffected by it. StatCounter has invested a great deal of time and money to ensure that this load time is instant. The load time experienced by your visitor is monitored daily and we are continually adding more dedicated servers as we grow to ensure instantaneous responses. StatCounter.com respects your privacy, and the privacy of your visitors.

- The data we collect is then processed and analyzed by us and stored in our database servers.

- This is the fun bit! You can then log into your account anytime night or day to monitor and view your visitors and stats in real-time!
